

Payment Gateway

A payment gateway is a service provided to e-businesses and online retailers that authorizes online payments. The providers of this service try to protect critical consumer data such as personal and credit card information by using encryption (thus the term “gateway”) to ensure that this data can be securely exchanged between the seller, the consumer, and other parties like banks and credit card companies.

From:

<http://en.ecommercewiki.info/> - E-Commerce Wiki

Permanent link:

http://en.ecommercewiki.info/glossary/p/payment_gateway

Last update: 2012/04/20 12:22

